Applause, the student-published newspaper of the School of the Arts, is seeking your support. The monthly full-color publication has a distinguished readership throughout Charleston County and has been widely praised by the community since the first issue was published in December 1999. Several former Applause staff members are now enjoying successful careers in journalism. Applause has a circulation of 1,500 and will publish ten issues during the school year. In addition to the student body, Applause will reach the homes of SOA parents and numerous businesses and libraries in the community. The 10th issue, which includes 64 full-color pages, will commemorate the Class of 2023 and have a circulation of 2,000, and is free if you purchase a full year of ads. Your ad will also appear in the digital copy of Applause which will be posted and indexed at our website, soa-applause.com. You will notice our advertising rates are highly affordable, and they have not changed in twenty-one years. Facing escalating ink costs and expensive software licensing fees, Applause greatly appreciates your support. Your donation will also contribute to the annual Rose Maree Myers Scholarship Fund and will help Applause continue to bring first-rate musical and literary events to SOA.
